DIRECTOR'S REPORT
March 11, 2015

- Carey Davis, the Manager of City National Bank in Manhattan with which we deal, has not come to pick up the fines money in two weeks, and he has not called nor responded to messages I left at his office. Opal our treasure, has also tried, but to no effort. She told me that he has an agreement with Davis to pick up the money once a week, on Tuesday. So far, we have almost $400 that he has not picked up.
- Keith Bethon, our IT person and I have picked out the furniture for the computer room, and I will order it as soon as the board approve it.
- *I spoke to Vern L. Jinks, Program Director at the Rockville Centre EOC, inquiring about why that agency has not followed up on its desire to use a room here at the library this summer. He told me it was because agency people have been too busy dealing with an audit.
I reminded him that he has to get his request in as soon as possible, and he said it would be forthcoming. Is there a deadline that I can give him?*
- People have been asking me about the board's decision on Elizabeth Carol Cherry room in the library. But all I can tell them is that no decision has been yet reached, to the best of my knowledge.

Respectfully submitted
Ruby Boykins, Director
