April is National Poetry Month

No list of poets would be complete without the Collected Poems of Langston Hughes. A comprehensive collection of the verse of Langston Hughes contains 860 poems, including three hundred that have never appeared in book form.

This volume presents Frost’s first three books, masterful and innovative collections that contain some of his best-known poems, including “Mowing,” “Mending Wall,” “After Apple-Picking,” “Home Burial,” “The Oven Bird,” “Birches,” and “The Road Not Taken.”

The critically acclaimed author and poet recalls the anguish of her childhood in Arkansas and her adolescence in northern slums, in a special anniversary edition of her acclaimed autobiography.

A fictionalized biography of the Nobel Prize-winning Chilean poet Pablo Neruda, who grew up a painfully shy child, ridiculed by his overbearing father, but who became one of the most widely-read poets in the world.

After Wesley reads an intimate poem to his high school English class, other students envy this power of self-reflection and start writing their own poetry, causing deep secrets, fears, and feelings to be revealed and facades to vanish.
Deadline by Sandra Brown

Dawson Scott is a well-respected journalist recently returned from Afghanistan. Haunted by everything he experienced, he's privately suffering from battle fatigue which is a threat to every aspect of his life. But then he gets a call from a source within the FBI. A new development has come to light in a story that began 40 years ago.

Dust by Patricia Cornwell

Medical examiner Kay Scarpetta takes on the case of a young woman whose body was left on the Massachusetts Institute of Technology rugby field.

Chase by Janet Evanovich

Internationally renowned thief and con artist Nicolas Fox is famous for running elaborate and daring scams. His greatest con of all: convincing the FBI to team him up with the only person who has ever caught him, and the only woman to ever capture his attention, Special Agent Kate O’Hare. Together they’ll go undercover to swindle and catch the world’s most wanted—and untouchable—criminals.

Who Asked You? By Terry McMillan

Trinetta leaves her two young sons with her mother, Betty Jean, and promptly disappears. Bj already has her hands full dealing with her other adult children.

Invention of Wings by Sue Monk

On her 11th birthday in 19th century Charleston, Sarah is given a 10 year old slave. Over the next 15 years, both strive for lives of their own.

Still Life With Bread Crumbs by Anna Quindlen

Abandoning her expensive world to move to a small country cabin, a once world-famous photographer bonds with a local man and begins to see the world around her in new, deeper dimensions while evaluating second chances at love, career and self-understanding.

Stella Bain by Anita Shreve

A young woman suffers from shell shock in WWI and cannot remember anything prior to being wounded months earlier.

Winners by Danielle Steel

After an accident leaves 17 year old kier Lily Thomas paralyzed, she’ll be confined to a wheelchair, and will never win Olympic gold.
Black History month is a time to celebrate this deeply rooted rich culture. The celebration should be kept alive throughout the year. Stay positive, embrace it and observe [your] history in all that you do.
